

FUTURE UE STUDENTS
MASTER DEGREE in:
Environmental Conservation, Restorations and Sustainability
Marine curriculum (taught in ENGLISH)

Academic year 2026/2027
Università degli Studi di Sassari (UNISS)

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW IF YOU WANT TO COME ON BOARD

STEPS FOR ENROLING

- 1) Future EU students are first welcome to ask by mail (cds_ambiente@uniss.it) for an informal admittance to ECRS Master Degree: students should provide their bachelor degree study plan (in English) where courses taken and ECTS are reported. ECRS staff will verify their education and their English proficiency.
- 2) From the 1st of August 2026 students should pre-register on the UNISS website and follow the “admission procedure” via the “self-registration” (<https://www.uniss.it/it/didattica/servizi-agli-studenti/guide-studenti/registrazione-della-tua-anagrafica-uniss>)*. This will allow the students to access to an admission interview.
- 3) The admission interview will take place on September 11 2026 at 9:30 a.m. in a blended format (at the Bionaturalistic Center in via Piandanna 4 in Sassari and on the Teams platform at the link that will be communicated to the student).

* Registration will be in Italian, please do not hesitate to ask for help (cds_ambiente@uniss.it)

BEFORE ARRIVAL

Requirements

Admission to the Master Degree in ECRS is subject to possession of a three-year bachelor degree or scientific disciplines to be evaluated by a ECRS board: all the exams taken during the bachelor degree should be listed. A knowledge of the English language at level B1 is also required, proven by a university course, a certification or verified through an interview. For enrolment all the material to provide for admission should be translated in English, if it was not released in English.

So, to explore your eligibility for enrolment please send to cds_ambiente@uniss.it your carrier documentation (a curriculum vitae with the list of the exams taken can be enough).

Tuition fees at UNISS

If the student residence country is not Italy, he/she should only pay tuition fee for the second year of the ECRS Master (so, no tuition fee for the first year!).

Exact tuition fees for the 2026/27 will be known by July 2026. They will depend on the country of origin, merit and income. The costs to attend a master's degree course in Sassari consist of three items: tuition fee, virtual stamp, and regional tax. Payments are scheduled in three tranches expiring respectively in October (part of the tuition fee + virtual stamp), February (part of tuition fee + regional tax) and April (possible last part of the tuition fee). Tuition fees are particularly low compared to other Italian state universities.

Scholarships

The ECRS course does not assign scholarships.

At UNISS student scholarships are assigned by a regional agency named ERSU. A yearly call is published by ERSU (<https://ersusassari.it/it/servizi/servizio/Borse-di-studio/>) in July (deadline in mid September), but the participation requires some bureaucratic duties that need your presence in Italy (e.g. ISEE) as scholarships are based mostly on family income, which can be hard to certify for International students.

Alternatively, the student may rely on scholarship call by Ministero degli Affari Esteri e della Cooperazione Internazionale, yearly out in Spring at <https://studyinitaly.esteri.it/ListaBandi>. Please check the list of eligible Countries. (<https://studyinitaly.esteri.it/ListaBandi>).

One other option could be applying to INCLUSIVE-UNISS scholarships, the call is usually out in June every year.

Accommodation

STUDENT HOUSE

Rooms might be available in ERSU student houses located in Sassari.

A room in a student house can be obtained only once enrolled.

Prices (per person per month) range from 170€ in a double room to 225€ in a single room.

PRIVATE APARTMENTS

Renting a room/apartment from private owners represents an option. However, its search and contract definition is only possible on site. Prices (per person per month) are on average 230-250€ for single rooms in a shared apartment and 150-180€ for shared rooms. Private apartments or studios can be found but the cost for a decent location and apartment conditions is never below 400€/month. These amounts usually do not include bills (e.g. electricity, gas, water, wi-fi, waste recycling; roughly additional 50€/month) nor deposit. Some owners ask for a person already in Italy who can guarantee for you.

Rent contracts usually have a minimum duration of 10-12 months. The best period to locate rooms/apartments is from June to September; during the rest of the year it might be difficult to find apartments/rooms.

For early accommodation upon arrival (until finding a final accommodation), the city offers several affordable rooms in B&B (<https://www.airbnb.it/>), affittacamere, apartments, and hotels (<https://www.booking.com/index.it.html>).

Health Insurance and access to the Italian National Health care system

It is usually requested by the Italian Embassies and Consulate to have an insurance policy prior to arrival. However, also on arrival it would be safe to be covered by a travel health insurance policy taken out in your home country. Once here, as a student, it will be possible to be covered by the regional health system through the payment of a tax per solar year. This possibility is only given to students after the residence permit procedure is completed (see below “permesso di soggiorno”).

However, we remind you that emergency hospitalization without charge in Italy is guaranteed for health issues caused by accidents or any sudden health problem, also to foreign citizens and students.

Italian Language

Although the official language of the course is English, living in Sassari the student may experience difficulties communicating for his/her needs (bureaucracy, accommodation, shopping, etc.). This is why the student might consider learning at least some basics of the Italian language already before the arrival (for instance while waiting for your visa).

UNISS offers the possibility of having a course of Italian language on-line (<https://www.uniss.it/it/ateneo/strutture/centro-linguistico-di-ateneo-cla/corsi-di-lingua-italiana-stranieri/1st-semester-4>).

AFTER ARRIVAL

Phone and wi-fi

It is easy to buy a sim card and change the operator. Some apartments are rented with wifi (extra costs). In the university facilities, wifi is available for free to any student enrolled (two available nets: unissmobile and eduroam, both accessible using the student's credentials).

Transport within and outside Sardinia

Sassari is located on the island of Sardinia. The city has a bus service (ATP lines and timetable). The shuttle bus to the local airport (Alghero Fertilia 30km away) runs approximately once every 2 hrs (<https://app.arstspa.it/quadri/760.html>). The other airports in Olbia (110km) and Cagliari (220km) are not so well connected. Regional connections are possible by bus or by train, but rides are not very frequent.

Connections with other destinations in the country or abroad are possible by plane or ferry boat (through Porto Torres and Olbia ports). The closest airport in Alghero is connected with main Italian airports and with several foreign destinations depending on the season. You can book flights at affordable prices (especially if not in summer) from low cost companies. Tickets for both flights and ferries can be easily bought online.

Canteen

The regional agency ERSU manages a canteen in Sassari where it is possible to find menus based on traditional regional recipes and which take into account the needs of students with food intolerances, vegetarians and vegans (<https://www.uniss.it/en/international/incoming-mobility/guide-services-incoming-mobility-students/university-canteen>).

To benefit from this service, you must be registered to ERSU. Once registered, if you receive an ERSU scholarship, you will automatically have access to the canteen; if you have no scholarship, you can pay for single meals, the cost depending on your income (ISEE). Meals are usually cheaper than local restaurants, diners and bars.
